

I love not being hassled by tele-marketers. The people of Indiana wanted this and I do not believe it should be changed. The quality of my time at home has improved. It is difficult to work all day and then come home to unwanted telephone calls all evening. I do not believe the FCC should do ANYTHING to lessen Indiana's law! Thank you!